

MIKE SULLIVAN

York South – Weston’s Strong Local Voice

Mike Sullivan is proud to call York South-Weston his home. He, his wife Andrée and their family have lived on Church Street, in Weston, since 1992. It’s where they raised their 7 children, where they put down roots and where they work hard each and every day to make a positive difference in the lives of everyone they know.

Whether as a minor baseball coach or a scout leader, Mike has always found time to give back to our community. More recently, Mike has used his formidable organizing and communication skills to lead the fight against the destructive Blue 22 – the private, high-speed train that threatens to cut our community in half and pollute us with diesel exhaust. As Chair of the Weston Community Coalition (since 2004) Mike has worked tirelessly for investment in real public transit, using electric trains, that would better serve the needs of those who call York South - Weston home.

Mike has also devoted countless hours making a case for the return of good jobs to York South—Weston. As co-Chair of the Mount Dennis Weston Network, Mike has been at the forefront of the community campaign to bring well-paying green manufacturing jobs to the former Kodak lands at Eglinton and Black Creek.

After spending 10 years working at the CBC, Mike has fought hard for the past 25 years as a union representative (CEP) standing up for the rights of media workers across Canada, at the CBC and at numerous newspapers and broadcast outlets across Ontario, including The Toronto Star, Sing Tao, Korea Times, Now Magazine and Metro newspapers.

Mike was born in the United States but grew up in Windsor, Ontario. He graduated from the University of Toronto in 1973 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 2000, he was chosen to participate in the prestigious Governor General’s Canadian Study Conference.

Mike Sullivan is exactly the kind of honest, hard-working person we need and can count on as our Member of Parliament. With your vote on Monday May 2, Mike will be York South – Weston’s strong local voice in Ottawa.
